Our Lady of Lourdes Ceiling Repairs: Repairs to the interior of the church is going on. This work is necessary to repair damage to the ceiling caused by water leakage. Work is expected to take up to eight weeks, barring any unforeseen issues, however, we are cautiously optimistic the church will be open in time for Easter. During this time there will be NO access to the church, however, Sunday and weekday Masses will continue to take place in the church hall. The hall will also remain open for dance practices, meetings and rentals.

An epitaph to God's grace: In the small cemetery of a parish churchyard in Olney, England, stands a granite tombstone with this inscription: “John Newton, clerk [pastor], once an infidel & Libertine, a servant of slavers in Africa, was, by the rich mercy of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, preserved, restored, pardoned, and appointed to preach the Faith he had long labored to destroy.” — You may not remember his name, but all of us know the song he wrote as a testimony of his life: “Amazing Grace.”

Turning Evil to Good: A lady once showed John Ruskin (8 February 1819 – 20 January 1900) a costly handkerchief on which had fallen a large blot of ink. “What a shame!” she moaned. “It is absolutely good for nothing now. It is totally spoiled.” Ruskin said nothing but asked to borrow the handkerchief for a day. The next day he handed it to her without a word, and the lady delightedly saw that, using the blot as a starting point, the great artist had designed an intriguing pattern on that corner of the handkerchief. Now it was actually worth more than it had ever been before the blot had disfigured it. — God can draw forth good from evil! (Bruno Hagspiel, from Tonic from the Heart in 1000 Bottles; quoted by Fr. Botelho).
