"Feed my lambs." [John 21.15]

The Sun has risen!

The editor of one of the leading religious newspapers was walking along some cliffs near Eastbourne, England, one Easter morning. In his walk he met an old fisherman, and during their conversation together, the editor was struck by the simple Faith of the old fisherman in his risen Savior.

"How do you know that Jesus has risen?" he asked.

"Sir," came the reply, "do you see those cottages near the cliffs? Well, sir, sometimes when I am far out at sea, I know that the sun has risen by the light that reflected by yon cottage windows. How do I know that Christ has risen? Why, sir, do I not see his light reflected from the faces of some of my fellows every day, and do I not feel the light of his glory in my own life? As soon tell me that the sun has not risen when I see his reflected glory, as tell me that my Lord is not risen."

— (Anthony Castle, More Quotes and Anecdote; quoted by Fr. Botelho).

Teach us to bear witness to you even when we do not yet understand. Amen. Alleluia!* ccb.ca/life_and_family CCCB: National Pastoral Initiative for Life & the Family

Catechism of the Catholic Church

CCC Paragraph 645: By means of touch and the sharing of a meal, the risen Jesus establishes direct contact with his disciples. He invites them in this way to recognize that he is not a ghost and above all to verify that the risen body in which he appears to them is the same body that had been tortured and crucified, for it still bears the traces of his Passion. Yet at the same time this authentic, real body possesses the new properties of a glorious body: not limited by space and time but able to be present how and when he wills; for Christ's humanity can no longer be confined to earth, and belongs henceforth only to the Father's divine realm. For this reason too the risen Jesus enjoys the sovereign freedom of appearing as he wishes: in the guise of a gardener or in other forms familiar to his disciples, precisely to awaken their faith.

Events in and around the Archdiocese

56th World Day of Prayer for Vocations – On May 12, 2019 we are celebrating 4th Sunday of Easter (Good Shepherd Sunday) – the World Day of Prayer for Vocations. We would like to unite our prayers to those of the Universal Church in asking the Lord to “send laborers into His harvest” (cf. Lk 10:2) - that He would raise up from our midst many priests, religious and deacons who would serve God and His people with their whole hearts. Let us come together as local Church in Winnipeg and pray for this in Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament on May 12th, 2019 at 7:00 PM at St. Mary's Cathedral (353 St. Mary's Ave, Winnipeg). The Presider is going to be our Archbishop Richard Gagnon. For further information please contact the vocations director - Fr. Peter Nemcek – (204) 947-0294 or vocations@archwinnipeg.ca

In Manitoba, the National Week for Life and the Family promotes several events and actively works to enrich faith and community throughout the National week in May, but also extends the celebration to both before and following the National week (May 12-19, 2019). Every year the committee focuses on a new topic and theme that is pertinent to the church and families today. The theme for 2019 is: "Listening to the Gospel as a Family". The Tri-Diocesan committee seeks to offer events, activities and initiatives that promote the strengthening of families, the unity of the church community and takes on the challenges that families face in our world today, especially with regards to the unborn, children and the elderly. This year's focus will be on “renewing the family bond” and will have two main elements – “Receiving the Gospel” and “Sharing the Gospel”.

We kindly ask our parishes, schools, and organizations to consider highlighting the 2019 NWLF events:

- Lectio Divina among families (ongoing)
- The March for Life (May 9)
- The March for Life Mass (May 9)
- Mass of Remembrance and Healing for Pregnancy and Infant Loss (May 10)
- "Into the Breach" Workshop for Catholic Men (May 11)
- Mass for Life - Archdiocese of Winnipeg (May 14)
- Mass for Life - Archdiocese of St. Boniface (May 14)

Details on all of these events and initiatives (posters, bulletin inserts, logistics, etc.) are found on the new NWLF Website: lifeandthefamily.com.

We are witnesses to life having victory over death.

In the first reading, Peter and the disciples are chastised for proclaiming Jesus. [Acts 5]. In the Gospel, Peter jumps into the sea with his clothes on and is asked three times if he loves Jesus. [John 21].

It's okay for us to be an image of both these moments in Peter's life: sometimes we are lost and Jesus leads us back to faith, while other times we are ready to proclaim boldly what God has done for us. The truth is we are witnesses to a resurrected life in both our confusion and our sure faith.

Both moments are part of the story of how God works in the world. When the next season of suffering and confusion finds us, it is helpful for us to remember that God has led us through the wilderness before, and the end of God's story is Resurrection.
