Updated Restrictions in the Winnipeg Metropolitan Health Region, Sep 26, 2020

Archdiocese of Winnipeg - The Provincial Government has updated COVID-19 restrictions on public gatherings for the Winnipeg Metropolitan Health Region. Parishes in the North Winnipeg, Central Winnipeg, and South Winnipeg deaneries, as well as Notre Dame Church (Selkirk), Christ the King Church (Stonewall), St. Joseph's Church (Stony Mountain), St-François Xavier Church (St-François Xavier), St. Theresa's Church (West St. Paul), and St. Margaret's Church (Little Britain), are affected by these new restrictions.

Effective Monday, September 28, 2020, there will be a restriction on indoor and outdoor gatherings to ten (10) people. While these new restrictions do not apply to 'Faith Gatherings' including Mass, they will apply to the celebration of weddings, funerals and baptisms. The current restrictions on gatherings for Mass, including social distancing, remain. The use of face masks is also required for all indoor public gatherings.

Please inform parishioners of these new restrictions. According to the government, these rules will stay in place for at least four weeks.
