On Sunday, October 25th right after the mass there will be a short program in remembrance of the 1956 Revolution of Hungary, which left a huge mark in Hungary's history 70 years ago. The program will be followed by delicious lunch. Tickets are $25 for adults and $15 for children under 12 years of age. OUR PRAYER TO BE GOOD STEWARDS. Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation, for through your goodness and blessing you entrust to us all that we need to live and move and have our being. / Awaken in us, we pray, the call to be good and faithful stewards of our time, our talent and treasure. / Inspire us to use the gift of our time to return to you the gift of who we are and who you have created us to be. Renew and sustain our minds, our bodies and our spirits, that we may live each moment in deeper awareness of your presence. / Empower us to use the gifts of our hidden talents to reveal you, the giver of all gifts, and to help bring about the promise of your kingdom. / Free us from fear and hesitation in offering the gift of our treasure, so that we may lift up those in need and share the blessings you desire for all. / As stewards of your creation, may we be united in mission and joy, that we may become a visible sign of your love and mercy for our good and the good of the whole world. / We ask all this, most gracious God, in the Holy Spirit, through Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Weekend of October 10/11, 2026 There are a number of Bible verses Christians have memorized. One of them is in Saint Paul's letter to the Philippians found in this weekend's second reading: "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me" (Phi. 4:13). Most people define themselves either by their problems or their possibilities. Fearful people wake up each morning ensnared by their problems. Christian stewards wake up reflecting on their possibilities with confidence and hope. Some stewardship reflection questions for the week: What challenges do you back away from because you doubt that you are up to them? What would you attempt tomorrow if you were sure God would help you?
