OUR PRAYER TO BE GOOD STEWARDS. Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation, for through your goodness and blessing you entrust to us all that we need to live and move and have our being. / Awaken in us, we pray, the call to be good and faithful stewards of our time, our talent and treasure. / Inspire us to use the gift of our time to return to you the gift of who we are and who you have created us to be. Renew and sustain our minds, our bodies and our spirits, that we may live each moment in deeper awareness of your presence. / Empower us to use the gifts of our hidden talents to reveal you, the giver of all gifts, and to help bring about the promise of your kingdom. / Free us from fear and hesitation in offering the gift of our treasure, so that we may lift up those in need and share the blessings you desire for all. / As stewards of your creation, may we be united in mission and joy, that we may become a visible sign of your love and mercy for our good and the good of the whole world. / We ask all this, most gracious God, in the Holy Spirit, through Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

Remember Your Parish in your Will. It is always a blessing to the parish when a parishioner remembers their parish in their will. Your parish does not receive any support from the government or any other source. It is the folks who sit in the pew and who contribute financially who keep the parish running. There are many worthy causes; surely St. Anthony of Padua and Our Lady of Lourdes Parishes are two of them.

Andrew the apostle: A pastor met one of his members on the street who had missed Sunday Mass the previous Sunday. "What did you preach about on Sunday?" the man inquired. "I took my text from John 1 and spoke about Andrew," was the reply. "Andrew!" the parishioner exclaimed in surprise. "Why, I hardly remember him at all among the disciples. He didn't write any of the books of the Bible, did he? What made you talk about him?" The priest smiled. "I don't suppose many people would call Andrew great, but the one significant thing about him is that every time he is mentioned in the Bible, he's introducing someone to Jesus! First, we see him bringing his brother Simon to the Lord. [John 1:40-42] Next, he's escorting a young lad to the Savior who miraculously used the boy's simple lunch to feed a multitude. [John 6.8-9] And finally, he is directing a group of seeking Greeks to Jesus." [John 12.20-22] The parishioner walked away thoughtfully, for he had received a new glimpse of the importance of that unpraised apostle. — We need more Andrews in the Church. We need more disciples who are directing their friends and their family to Jesus. Christ has called us to make an impact on this community. "Yes, Father, I will go." [Matthew 21.28-32]. We are those who have said we would go. [Fr. Kadavil].
